Chapter 1 by Finn Grant

Wall Street, where sweaty men and women fuelled by coffee, adrenalin and cocaine distribute the world's finance in risky, not-so-risky and legally dubious ventures. A literal pig sty for capitalists.

And now I was part of it.

My father always told me that my one rule in life should be to make money work for me, not the other way around. I spent 20 years trying to figure out what he meant by that. 20 wasted years trying to change the world as an activist.

Yes, you may think I've traded a life of decency for a life of sin but you know what? I don't give a fuck.
